You have been asked to complete this Worksheet because someone else currently receives a Lifeline-supported service at your address. This other person may or may not be a part of your household. Answer the questions below to determine whether there is more than one household residing at your address. (PLEASE USE EXAMPLES BELOW IF YOU NEED REFERENCE TO DEFINES HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD)
Lifeline is a government program that provides a monthly discount on home or mobile telephone services. Only ONE Lifeline discount per household is allowed. Members of a household are not permitted to receive Lifeline service from multiple telephone companies.

Full Name: _____ Contact Telephone Number: _____
Home Address (no PO Boxes): _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip code: _____

- Does your spouse or domestic partner (someone you are married to or in a relationship with) already receive a Lifeline-discounted phone from any phone company? (if you do not have a spouse or partner, please check no) YES NO
 - If you checked YES, you may not sign up for Lifeline because someone in your household already receives Lifeline.
 - If you checked NO, please answer question #2.
- Other than a spouse or partner, do other adults (people over the age of 18 or emancipated minors) live with you at your address?
 YES (If Yes select from below) NO

A. A parent	D. An adult roommate
B. An adult son or daughter	E. Other _____
C. Another adult relative (such as a sibling, aunt, cousin, grandparent, grandchild, etc.)

 - If you checked NO for each statement above, you do not need to answer the remaining questions. Please initial line B, below, and sign and date the worksheet.
 - If you checked YES, please answer question #3.
- Do you share living expenses (bills, food, etc.) and share income (your income, the other person's income or both incomes together) with at least one of the adults listed above in question #2? YES NO
 - If you checked NO, then your address includes more than one household. Please initial lines A and B below, and sign and date the worksheet.
 - If you checked YES, then your address includes only one household. You may not sign up for Lifeline because someone in your household already receives Lifeline.

Examples of SAME Household:

- Spouses and domestic partners.
- Adults living at same address, sharing household expenses (such as rent, utilities and food), AND share income (such as salary, public assistance benefits, social security payments and unemployment).
- Children under the age of 18 living with their parents or guardians are part of the same household as their parents or guardians.
- If an adult has no or minimal income and lives with someone who provides financial support to that adult.

Examples of MULTIPLE Households:

- Adults living at the same address, sharing household expenses (such as rent, utilities and food), but do NOT share income (such as salary, public assistance benefits, social security payments and unemployment).
- Roommates sharing rent, utilities and other expenses, but do NOT share income.

Household = everyone who lives together at your address as one economic unit (which may include children and people not related to you).

Economic Unit = the adults you live with that contribute to and share in the income and expenses of the household.

Adult = any person 18 years of age or older, or an emancipated minor (a person under age 18 who is legally considered to be an adult).

Expenses include food, health care expenses (such as medical bills) and the cost of renting or paying a mortgage on your place of residence (a house or apartment, for example) and utilities (including water, heat and electricity).

Income includes salary, public assistance benefits, social security payments, pensions, unemployment compensation, veteran's benefits, inheritances, alimony, child support payments, worker's compensation benefits, gifts, and lottery winnings.
