

According to 50's era movie star Bette Davis,

"Old age ain't for sissies!"

Join in the conversation as we watch and discuss how successfully the issues of aging are addressed by characters in film.

This is a FREE series facilitated by Marge Simmons and Ann Bialy, Alliance on Aging Senior Peer Counselors

- Sept. 22: Bucket List – Two terminally ill patients become friends and make a plan to fully experience life before they “kick the bucket”
- Sept. 29 Unfinished Song – A gentle story of love, marriage, and how music can help heal a broken heart
- Oct. 06: Nebraska – A cantankerous old boozier thinks he has won a sweepstakes prize and his son reluctantly takes him on a road trip to claim it
- Oct. 13: Letters to Juliet – After the discovery of a long lost letter, a woman attempts to reconnect with an important part of her past
- Oct. 20: The World's Fastest Indian – A biographical film about a man who, despite great challenges, lives out his dream to set a world speed record
- Oct. 27: Still Mine – Based on the true story of a man who builds a new home for his ailing wife and, in the process, has to deal with an officious building inspector
- Nov. 03: Happy – A documentary that combines real life stories and scientific insights to explore what makes people happy
- Nov. 10: Somethings Gotta Give – A sexy senior citizen is having the time of his life with a new young girlfriend until her mother steps in

WHEN: 1:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Alliance on Aging
247 Main Street in Salinas (93901)

To register call Michelle Lopez: 831.655.4241 or mlopez@allianceonaging.org