

Aging at the Movies Lunch Bunch Movie Series

We are trying something old and something new for this six week movie series. The format will be the same. We'll watch a movie, then discuss the issues related to aging portrayed in the film. The old (aside from us) will be an encore viewing of movies from past Aging at the Movies series. The movies will begin at a new time: 11:30 AM. Attendees are encouraged to bring lunch and eat as we watch some of the favorite movies from previous series.

We hope you'll pack your lunch and join us for a couple of hours. The Aging at the Movies Lunch Bunch Movie Series will feature the following:
