

Aging at the Movies Presents:

End of Life Decisions Series

Come and join us as we explore, through film and discussion, the complicated decisions one must make as they face the end of life.

WHEN: The following Wednesdays 1:00pm-3:30pm

- July 19, 2017 – The Last Word: Businesswoman Harriet Lawler (Shirley McLaine) hires a professional to compose a really meaningful obituary that will wow her friends and family.
- July 26, 2017 – A Man Called Ove: Angry Ove plagues his neighbors with constant demands and secretly makes plans to end his life.
- August 2, 2017 – How to Die in Oregon: An award winning documentary that follows Oregon men and women as they consider the newly legal physician assisted suicide option.
- August 9, 2017 – Rocket Gibraltar: Levi's (Bert Lancaster) does not reveal that he is terminally ill. However, his grandchildren figure out that he is planning his own funeral and then surprise him.
- August 9, 2017 – Amour: George and Ann's long lasting marriage is tested when she becomes seriously ill and George becomes her caregiver.
- August 23, 2017 – Group Discussion: An interactive conversation about the new End of Life Options Act, Advanced Directives, and POLST forms. Included will be legal requirements and hints on introducing the concepts with family. Bring your own thoughts and questions and join in.
