

March Art Project: Storybooks"

Join us for a Memorial Art Workshop Facilitated by Lori VanMeter

(No advanced skills or experience necessary)

Participants can tell their own life story (or someone else's) by decorating a book-shaped box in any motif or style imaginable. Adorn the cover and spine with a title and/or images, and fill the inside with figures, souvenirs, or scenarios of your favorite stories and memories. No advanced skills or experience necessary.

We'll provide the blank book-boxes and basic tools/supplies, plus loads of materials such as fabrics, paints, polymer clay, colored papers, trimmings and "bling." Bring along any images, fabrics and/or objects you would like to feature in your design – for photos, we'll photocopy them for use on your book and you'll keep the unharmed original. You can also bring stickers, stamps, objects, or other tools/supplies of your own that you would like to use.

When: Every Wednesday in March, 10am-12pm

Where: The HUB-Community Room
236 Monterey St., Salinas, CA
