

“Winter Movie Series”

Aging at the Movies

JOIN IN THE CONVERSATION AS WE WATCH AND DISCUSS HOW SUCCESSFULLY THE ISSUES OF AGING ARE ADDRESSED BY CHARACTERS IN FILM

A free series facilitated by Anne Bialy and Marge Simmons,
Alliance on Aging Peer Counselors

January 22: A Man Called Otto (2022) (PG-13) Starring: Tom Hanks
Based on a Swedish book and movie, this American version tells the story of a grumpy old man, who makes new friends and learns to enjoy life again.

January 29: The Marriage Fool (TV 1998) (PG-13) Starring: Walter Matthau and Carol Burnett
A widower meets a woman who brings out a joyful, spirited side of his personality. His adult children do not approve of the relationship.

February 5: Living (2022) (PG-13) Starring: Bill Nighy
A man takes stock of his life and makes some changes. He wants to live it up a little, find meaning, and accomplish something meaningful.

February 12: The Last Laugh (2019) (PG - 13) Starring: Richard Dreyfus, Chevy Chase, Andie MacDowell
A retired comedian reunites with his former agent and goes on one last comedy tour.

February 26: The Magic of Belle Isle (2012) (PG - 13) Starring: Morgan Freeman
A retired writer is rejuvenated as he finds inspiration in a remote place and its people.

March 4: Rocket Gibraltar (1988) (PG) Starring: Burt Lancaster, Macaulay Culkin, Kevin Spacey
This is one of Burt Lancaster's last movies It shows how grandchildren honor a grandpa's sentimental request.

WHEN: Mondays, 2:00-4:30 p.m.

WHERE: The HUB - Alliance on Aging
236 Monterey St. Salinas